

40 days and 40 nights

Once again, Lent seems to have come round rather quickly. It is a time to reflect on our priorities and the way we try to live our lives of faith. The number forty is a deeply biblical one which resonates with the forty days Moses spent on the mountain, learning from God, the forty years the Israelites wandered before reaching the promised land, the forty days our Lord fasted and prayed in the Judean desert. Coincidentally, it is also the number of days every year, that medieval knights were obliged to turn out for military service for their monarch. With the events surrounding the burial of the remains of Richard III, this has a strange relevance. St Bernard of Clairvaux (who came from a very combative, knightly family from Burgundy) used to enjoy using this imagery to explain what Lent was about. He said that if it is your duty to serve an earthly king for forty days a year, how much more is it your duty to give special service to the High King of Heaven for forty days a year. In one sermon, he said to his monastic brothers:

“Today, dear brethren, we enter the holy season of Lent, our Christian period of military service. In keeping it, we do not stand alone. We are united with all who hold the faith. Should not all Christians share the fast of Christ? Where the head leads, should not all the members follow?”

So, as we prepare for spiritual combat, we can ask for the powerful intercession of Our Lady, and St Bernard, and all the saints and angels. We should ask for their prayers that our Lent is fruitful and holy, so we can grow in grace and enjoy the beautiful feast of the resurrection at Easter.

| Communion Antiphon: | Either: They ate and had their fill, and what they craved the Lord gave them; they were not disappointed in what they craved. Or: God so loved the world that he gave his Only Begotten Son, so that all who believe in him may not perish, but may have eternal life. |

Baptism Preparation: the next session is on 1 March; please come to the sacristy at the end of the 10.30am Mass. If you wish to have your child baptised at Holy Cross, you need to attend one of these sessions, usually held on the first Sunday of each month.

The new 10.30 Mass starts TODAY, 15 February

Today we begin our new Sunday Mass schedule, with the new combined morning Mass at 10.30am. This is the coming together of two long-standing Eucharistic Communities in charity and friendship. We will have a “bring and share” lunch after this Mass, and we hope that pancakes will be served! We are involved in a process of organising and developing the various ministries around this new Eucharistic Community.

The demolition of New Walk Centre is scheduled for NEXT SUNDAY, 22 February. We are outside the exclusion zone, so it will be business as usual at Holy Cross. Billy Young, the Demolition Project Manager, has met with Fr David and is working on a strategy to manage car parking. He will visit this morning, 15 February, to answer questions. We will also have a number of police and sentries allied to us and our concerns on the day. Fr David would be grateful if some parishioners would volunteer to help manage things at Holy Cross on the day. Please do come to Mass on this Sunday at Holy Cross!

Requiem Mass for the repose of the soul of Richard III – Please note that the closing date for the ballot has been brought forward to Ash Wednesday, 18 February. See overleaf.

Wednesday is Ash Wednesday, a day of fasting and abstinence. There will be an extra Mass, at 7.15pm, sung and in the Dominican Rite.

SAFEGUARDING. The safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults is a top priority at Holy Cross, and it is the responsibility of all of us to ensure that we are a safe and nurturing community. Please do not allow children to visit the toilet unaccompanied by an adult relative. The building is vulnerable to hide-and-seek or keen explorers, so please – straight there and straight back with an adult relative. Thank you all for your co-operation on this most important matter.

MONEY MATTERS: Last Weekend's collections – Offertory Collection £1264.23 (of which £350.50 was Gift Aided and £913.73 was not) and in addition the parish receives approximately £240 per week in donations made by standing order, nearly all of which are Gift Aided; SVP £22.83; Friends of Holy Cross £4.71; Holy Souls £27.92; Grenada Church Restoration £20.00. The retiring collection for the upkeep of the Priory came to £452.45 (of which £120.00 was Gift Aided and £332.45 was not).

Very many thanks for your continuing generosity.

The sacrifice of the Mass. There will be a St Thomas Aquinas Study Weekend at St Dominic's Convent, Stone, Staffordshire ST15 8EN, with Fr Richard Ounsworth OP and Sr Valery Walker OP from 20 to 22 February. Contact Sr Valery Walker on valerywalker@yahoo.co.uk or 01785 812091. Suggested donation £150 residential (students and unwaged £50); daily £5 per talk, lunch £5.

Rosmini Centre, Saturday 28th February, Afternoon Retreat 3.00-7.00pm; reflection theme "Praying with the Psalms". Saturday 21st March, RETREAT DAY 'Blessed Antoinio Rosmini: a Spiritual Guide for today' given by Fr Pierluigi Giroli I.C., 10.30am to 4.00pm; lunch included. Please telephone 01509 813078 if you wish to attend on any occasion.

On-Street Car Parking. Charges did not apply last Sunday, and will not apply until the notices on the machines and roadside signs are altered. So, check the signs if parking in Wellington Street.

King Richard III. The refurbishment work to the walls and floor has begun. Areas of the church are being closed off, but normal service times are retained.

There is a Ballot process for the Requiem Mass on Monday 23 March, to be celebrated here by Cardinal Vincent Nichols at 5pm. We will have a number of official guests present and people from around the country are asking to attend this historic event. Although our church is a good size, we cannot accommodate everyone wishing to come. Parishioners of Holy Cross will have a protected percentage of the places available. The only fair way to allocate these tickets is by a ballot of the applicants. A maximum of two tickets per application will be issued to the successful applicants. If you wish to attend this event please write your name, address, parish and diocese on a piece of paper and send with a stamped addressed envelope to: Richard III Event, Holy Cross Priory, 45 Wellington Street, Leicester LE1 6HW. It is also possible to apply by email to kriiii@holycrossleicester.org giving all the information already stated when applying. The cut-off date has been brought forward to 18 February.

The Dominican Fathers will sing the Office of Vespers in Leicester Cathedral on Tuesday 24 March. All are welcome to attend this service at 5.30pm.

The 2015 March for Life is taking place on Saturday 16th May, starting at St Chad's Cathedral, Birmingham, led by Archbishop Bernard Longley, from 12 noon onwards. We hope that many people from churches all around will join us on the march. The march is across Birmingham city centre and less than a mile long. We aim to arrange a coach from Leicester (aiming for fare of £8-£13 per person depending on numbers) and now we need you to tell us that you would like to come! Can you spare a few hours in prayerful, peaceful defence of unborn babies in danger of abortion? Call now to reserve your place on the coach. Families welcome!
