

6B Eastertide - Christ's Farewell Discourse

Our Eastertide Gospels have been taken from Christ's Final Discourse before his departure, through his Passion and then his Ascension. He set out to prepare us, His followers, for the time when He would no longer be visibly present among us.

Before His departure, Jesus wanted to do two things: to reassure us that He would still be with us, and, in a few words, to sum up the heart of His teaching.

Let us take a brief look at Christ's final will and testament to us, His followers. Far from abandoning us, Jesus assured us He would remain with us through His love for us, ours for Him.

This idea is familiar to us. Couples who have to part for a time reassure each other that they will remain close in each other's love. The miles separating them will not undermine their love. They promise to remain faithful to their love. That is precisely what Christ does here: He reassures us that He will remain with us through His love for us, ours for Him.

And like the couple about to part, Jesus goes further. He urges us to remain faithful in our love for Him. That fidelity is shown by doing only what will please Him, and avoiding anything that will undermine or even destroy our love. He knows our love will be tested by temptations to sin.

Jesus then goes further to explain how we should love. He reminds us that our love for Him must embrace all God's children. We cannot really love the Father if we hate or harm any of His children. We cannot claim to have a private love for God which excludes them. In his 1st Letter, John goes so far as to say that if we cannot love the people we can see, we will not be able to love the invisible God.

Finally Jesus sums up how we should love, with the words, 'As I have loved you.' He then adds, 'Greater love has no man than to lay down his life for his friends.' Jesus proved the depth of His love for us by giving His very life, so that we could be happy with God. Christ's generous self-giving shows us how we should love God and each other. That involves life-long generosity in loving.

Christ's final will and testament is the Gospel of love. Towards the end of his life John sums up his understanding of God, with the words, 'God is love!' If we are to remain in God, we must remain in love for God and each other. Love is the only way to real, eternal happiness and joy. Being a Christian is all about learning to love in the same way as Christ loves His heavenly Father and each of us.

We are planning to hold Blackfriars Market on the weekend of 13/14 June this year. There will be a meeting in the Hall after the 10.30 am Mass today for those interested in helping to organise this important annual event.

In recent months, we have begun to celebrate Mass at 10:30am on Sunday mornings, and lots of people have been working together to establish this new pattern. In the weeks ahead, we must build on this excellent start. Thank you to all who are helping with this.

Security. Please do not leave any valuables unattended in the church.

Please join us in the Parish Hall after the 10.30am Sunday Mass for tea, coffee, fruit juice etc. There is the opportunity for a chat with members of the Dominican Community and parishioners. We particularly welcome new students and other visitors.

From today's Gospel:

“This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.”

Our Children's Liturgy has been going for almost a year, and it is time now to develop and consolidate this important part of our parish apostolate. The Children's Liturgy takes place during the Liturgy of the Word at the 10:30am Mass. On Sunday 24 May, there will be a meeting for all those interested in developing and assisting with the liturgy and for developing other areas of catechesis for our children, of all ages. Hopefully this will enable us to put in place a plan and a structure for the Autumn Term that will help our children to cherish the Faith and grow in grace.

First Holy Communion and Confirmation: families worshipping regularly at Holy Cross who wish to celebrate these sacraments this year should come to a brief meeting in St Clement's Hall following the 10:30am Mass today, Sunday 10 May.

Fatima Devotions in May: During the month of May we will hold Devotions in Honour of Our Lady of Fatima each Saturday morning at 10am Mass. Please make a special effort to attend these devotions which will mark this special month of devotion to Our Blessed Lady.

A Novena to St Rita, Patroness of Impossible Cases, will start this Thursday, 14 May.

SAFEGUARDING. Holy Cross is a place where our children are cherished and protected. In order to ensure that our children are safe and feel safe, we have launched a safeguarding review, led by Ms Jane Jones, the Safeguarding Advisor to the Dominicans in England.
