

% E are to feel astonishment and delight. Jesus came back from the dead! It gives us some idea of who He is; in Thomas' words: ! " #ord and m" $od!'. %e ma" not feel all this at all. %e have heard it over and over again& all our lives. That is wh" we have all the ceremonies& like Easter& to hel' us recreate the feelings there are& dee' & in us. (ur souls' can feel it& dee' l".

)ear b" "ear we ma" grow in a ' 'reciation of what this means; for ourselves; and 'eo' le we love. %e think we have lost those who have died. %e haven't lost' them. %e live with a sense of $od's great 'resence and love& for them.

+unda" gos' els from now on are back to business , the great business of listening to Jesus our teacher. The" set us& at His feet& as His disci' les. He has to make things clear. He does& toda"& with a 'lain observation. %e listen& to voices.

He gives the e-am' le of shee' . The" know their own she' herd's voice& and follow him to 'asture; and no.one else; not thieves& who kill them. Jesus' hearers don't understand.

%e do. %e follow His voice. It breathes merc"& from $od; the wisdom of $od's 'atience; and the trust& to have& in Him; the confidence we can 'lace in Him. This breath& or s'irit'& is what we need to have in ourselves& so much.

Jesus not onl" sa"s it& He sounds like it. %e are to hear it& in His voice. Have we heard it/ Have we learnt it/ Oo our voices sound like it/ 1oices sa" ver" much more than the things' said.

%e reall" fall in love& with voices. The" can thrill& and calm& and e-cite& and reassure. The" can not onl" talk about love& but carr" the sound of it.

%e hear it in Him& take it from Him& give it to others from Him and for Hi
