

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

For more than a century the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, now drawing to a conclusion, has been celebrated every year by Christians of all Churches and ecclesial communities in order to invoke the extraordinary gift for which the Lord Jesus himself prayed at the Last Supper, before his Passion: “that they may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me” (Jn 17:21).

The practice of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity was introduced in 1908 by Fr Paul Wattson, the founder of an Anglican religious community who later entered the Catholic Church. The initiative received the blessing of Pope St Pius X and was later promoted by Pope Benedict XV, who encouraged its celebration throughout the Catholic Church with the Brief Romanorum Pontificum of 25 February 1916.

The Octave of Prayer was developed and perfected in the 1930s by Abbé Paul Couturier of Lyons, who supported the prayer “for the unity of the Church as Christ wants her and in conformity with the instruments that he desires”. His last writings show that Abbé Couturier saw this Week as a means which enables Christ’s universal prayer “to enter and penetrate the entire Body of Christians”; it must grow until it becomes “an immense, unanimous cry of the entire People of God”, asking God for this great gift. Moreover the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is in itself one of the most effective expressions of the impetus the Second Vatican Council gave to the search for full communion among all Christ’s disciples.

The Second Vatican Council made the ecumenical search the centre of the Church’s life and activity: “The Sacred Council exhorts all the Catholic faithful to recognize the signs of the times and to take an active and intelligent part in the work of ecumenism” (Unitatis Redintegratio, n. 4). Blessed John Paul II underlined the essential nature of this task, saying, “This unity, which the Lord has bestowed on his Church and in which he wishes to embrace all people, is not something added on, but stands at the very heart of Christ’s mission. Nor is it some secondary attribute of the community of his disciples. Rather, it belongs to the very essence of this community” (Encyclical Ut Unum Sint, n. 9).

May this spiritual event that unites Christians of all traditions increase our awareness that the true unity for which we strive cannot be solely the result of our own efforts but, rather, will be a gift from on high, to be ceaselessly prayed for.

From the General Audience of Pope Benedict XVI, Wednesday, 18 January, 2012.

Baptism Preparation: the next session is on 1 February; please come to the sacristy at the end of the 9.30am Mass. If you wish to have your child baptised at Holy Cross, you need to attend one of these sessions, usually held on the first Sunday of each month.

The 9.30 and 11.00 Sunday Masses. Tomorrow, Monday 26 January at 7.30pm, we will meet to develop the next steps for the combined 10.30 Mass, particularly the various ministries – reading, serving, singing, etc.

On-Street Car Parking. Please note that parking on Sundays in on-street spaces will be free of charge until today. From 1 February there will be a charge of £1 for 3 hours, probably between 7.30am and 6pm, in the Wellington Street area and around New Walk Centre.

The demolition of New Walk Centre is scheduled for Sunday 22 February. On that day there will be an exclusion zone which is “likely to extend to include Fenwick’s, the Magistrates’ Court and Youth Court, Newarke Street Multi Storey car park, the Adult Education Centre in Belvoir Street and Wellington Street, and the NCP multi-storey car park in Welford Road.”

News from the Parish Shop. There is a selection of cards available for all occasions at very reasonable prices.

The shop is open after the 12.30pm Masses during the week, on Saturdays from 11am until after the 12.30pm Mass, and after every Sunday Mass. The shop is in the room beyond the sacristy.

The new 10.30 Mass will start on Shrove Sunday, 15 February

We will come together in celebration of our community, following Mass with pancakes, and a bring and share lunch. During Lent we will begin the process of working together to establish a new, strong and vibrant Eucharistic Community at 10.30am.

MONEY MATTERS: Last Weekend's collections – Offertory Collection £1253.60 (of which £376.10 was Gift Aided and £877.50 was not) and in addition the parish receives approximately £240 per week in donations made by standing order, nearly all of which are Gift Aided; SVP £2.31; Friends of Holy Cross £1.16; Holy Souls £11.50; Grenada Church Restoration £ - .
